

Why I developed Whole Life Integration

I developed Whole Life Integration for me because I felt cheated by life and that life would pass me by and all I could say about it was that life was never happy for me – not until now. It has taken me more than 40 years to develop Whole Life Integration and to this date many hundreds of people have benefited from it. I want to share my excitement with you and let you to know that there really is hope.

Over the past 40 years my quest has been to determine how the human mind works - Not medically or biologically but how it is programmed, how it functions and how to change it – for the better. I became certified in Hypnosis and NeuroLinguistics and have taught innovative techniques for over 20 years.

I believed that there had to be an easier way to make these vast changes and the result is Whole Life Integration™.

I know you think that you have heard all of this before. Perhaps you didn't understand.

You really can change your life by changing the way that you think. You don't have to keep doing it - It's just done!

By changing the way you image or imagine yourself automatically changes your life permanently.

You don't have to keep doing it. It's just done!

It is done by changing the neural patterns or pathways, enabling one to have a much happier, healthier, more fulfilling life. In other words, when you change the way that you think, your life will change automatically.

Whole Life Integration

What would having financial security, peace of mind, a positive self image, and improved relationships be worth to you?

$100,000?, $200,000?, a Million Dollars? Actually, these things are priceless

These are the benefits you automatically receive when you experience Whole Life Integration™

By utilizing discoveries in Quantum Physics relating to our Morphogenetic Field, Whole Life Integration enables us to eliminate our life issues and what we call our family patterns completely!

Whole Life Integration is a means of extricating oneself from ingrained life conditions. This is not done by replacing a habit with a more complex habit. Nor is it done by reading a rule book to define how one should be.

Whole Life Integration

Leading The Field:

Whole Life Integration is a means of extricating oneself from ingrained life conditions.

It is done by changing the neural patterns or pathways, enabling one to have a much happier, healthier, more fulfilling life. In other words, when you change the way that you think, your life will change automatically.

WLI utilizes a form of ancient Hawaiian forgiveness and clearing called Ho'oponopono. I consider the form that I use to be most complete. It is a variation of what is considered the traditional form.

What People Are saying:

Hey Jason!

My family is doing FABULOUSLY! My mom, who is 70 this year, has had the greatest change. She's really dug deep and worked diligently to remove all of those old programs. It hasn't been the easiest thing for her to do but I'm so proud of the way she keeps moving forward through the pain into Love. LOVE IT!

My oldest brother has overcome a long addiction to food and moved forward beautifully. He's really shifted his life and is happier than I've ever seen him.

Me...all I can say is WOW. With old programs removed I can stay in my authentic self continually and I can really see the change it makes not only in my happiness but in everything I touch and everything that 'comes' my way.

I can't thank you enough for the information you've brought to me...from that first reading I had with you in Florida to your WLI CD/workbook. Thank you so much for being here for all of us. Have an amazing day! Remember...there is only Love!

"When the student is ready, the teacher appears"...

When I came into contact with Jason's work, I was sick and tired of being "sick and tired". I was up against my walls big time - my negative, judgmental thoughts, my self-limiting beliefs, my psychological wounds that were once more in my face...and my body was failing under the burden of trying for years to "keep on keeping on" amidst this inner pain and seeming insanity of the mind. I had spent all my energy and money in the last many years going from one healing practitioner to another, which, just before meeting Jason, culminated in a frenzied thrust of appointments in an attempt to "cut through".

I experienced one-on-one work with him using his Whole Life Integration technique. I was amazed at how specific this healing was to me - how I received just what I needed to turn me around in a profound way. On the outer, part of the process sounded a bit like affirmations, but on the inner, it went deep and, in love and in affirmation of my true nature, lifted me to another place. It was like cosmic surgery. Further work with Jason has addressed each healing concern and I can say with great gratitude that this work of Jason's has taken me out of a despairing place into a world within myself that is full of possibility.

THANK YOU, JASON, for your skill in being able to "see" what I have needed, for the wisdom you hold in understanding the nature of true healing, and for the beautiful, simple processes you took me through to get closer to my incredible self. ~ Barbara, Mau

It's not always physical. Often physical conditions are caused by our Emotions.

Actually Jason I have had a healing thru spirit...as you might remember. When I came to your class one day, I was very upset about the fact that the Doctor told me I had scoliosis, and if not careful, could become paralyzed if I moved wrong or too fast.

We spoke of it after class, and I just could not see my way thru to heal myself, even though I know I could have done so. You worked on me for 3 days in a row, for over 2 hours at a time, and I, of course, realized I had no back aches, but found out what else I didn't have when I returned to the specialist the following week.

He put me thru a series of tests, and looked very confused as he looked at the x-rays and made me do the tests again and even a 3rd time. Finally he says "what have you done, these aren't YOUR x-rays, they must have given you the wrong ones."

I EXPLAINED several times that I had been to a healer...but he just could NOT understand, those WERE my x-rays....BEFORE you worked on me. Finally, I just laughed and said, "No doubt you are right, keep the x-rays, maybe someone who belongs to them will come in," and I must say I bounced and flounced my well body out of his office.

He won't ever get it, but I most assuredly did, and my body thanks you and spirit for the healing.
